The first programme opens with a trio of Polish composers: incorporating Mazurkas by Karol Szymanowski, Chopin's revolutionary and ambitious Études, Op. 10, and Andrzej Panufnik's lively homage to his predecessor. In the second half we return to the Mazurka, this time with dances by British composer Thomas Adès, and finish with Medtner's intense and impassioned Sonata Romantica.

The second programme opens with Bach's imposing Toccata in D minor which is followed by Beethoven's uplifting and optimistic Sonata in E flat major. In the second half, Ravel's elegant and poised Sonatine contrasts strongly with the lively wit of Mendelssohn's Andante and Rondo Capriccioso and the sombre dignity of Rachmaninov's Variations. Based on a well known Baroque dance melody, 'La Folia', used by Corelli, the latter is an enduringly popular work.

"... Most impressive, though, was her natural sense of pacing, allowing the hollowed-out climax of Pour les Arpèges Composées to gather like a wisp of smoke in sunlight before dissipating in a passing breeze."
