PRESS

"displayed its scintillating passagework and poetic calm with great flair"
The Guardian, Cheltenham Festival, Rian Evans

"... Most impressive, though, was her natural sense of pacing, allowing the hollowed-out climax of Pour les Arpèges Composées to gather like a wisp of smoke in sunlight before dissipating in a passing breeze."
The Guardian, Purcell Room, Guy Dammann

SAMPLE PROGRAMMES

Lunchtime Recitals

Clare is happy to discuss programmes and to offer other suggestions if of interest.

These programmes can be modified to fit a lunch-time slot and works can be exchanged between the two.

Programme 1

RAVEL
Le Tombeau de Couperin (25')

CHOPIN
Selection from Études, Op. 25 (8')

LYAPUNOV
Two Études d'Exécution Transcendante (11')

KAPUSTIN
Three Studies in Different Intervals (9')

Listen to an excerpt from Ravel's Tombeau at:
www.clarehammond.com/live-in-concert.html

Listen to audio demos of Lyapunov and Kapustin at:
www.clarehammond.com/etude.html

Ravel's poignant and expressive Le Tombeau de Couperin is written in the style of an eighteenth-century dance suite with each movement dedicated to the memory of a friend who was killed in the Great War. This has been programmed alongside a selection of pyrotechnic études by Chopin and two Russian composer-pianists, Lyapunov and Kapustin. This exhilarating and compelling tour de force showcases just what the piano can really do!

Clare is releasing a disc of études by Lyapunov and Kapustin for BIS Records in February 2015 (see www.clarehammond.com/etude.html).

Programme 2

BEETHOVEN
Sonata No. 8 in C minor, Op. 13 'Pathétique' (20')

RAVEL
Sonatine (12')

ALWYN
Movements (16')
i. Allegro appassionato - Allegro ma non troppo
ii. Evocation: Andante rubato
iii. The Devil's Reel: Allegro ritmico

Beethoven's dramatic and turbulent 'Pathétique' Sonata heralded the beginning of a more Romantic style of writing for piano and contrasts strikingly with the poise and elegance of Ravel's Sonatine. William Alwyn's Movements are some of his most engaging and vividly characterised pieces with the "Devil's Reel" providing an energetic and unsettling close to the programme.

"In Ravel's Tombeau de Couperin, the pianist was likewise in full expressive command of her fingers, conveying the swirling shimmer and sweet melancholy of a work that veers between elegance and emotion."

Conrad Wilson, Herald Scotland

"Hammond recalled both Myra Hess and Annie Fischer, great Beethoven pianists of bygone generations."
Terry Blain, Culture Northern Ireland
