

SOUNDS NEW

Proposal for piano recital in 2015

CLARE HAMMOND, piano

www.clarehammond.com

"Amazing power and panache" Daily Telegraph

"Crisp precision and unflashy intelligence" The Guardian

Pianist Clare Hammond is to record two discs for BIS Records, one of the complete solo piano works of Andrzej and Roxanna Panufnik and the other of études by Unsuk Chin, Karol Szymanowski, Sergei Lyapunov and Nikolai Kapustin. The études by Chin form the centrepiece of the latter disc, due for release in February 2015. Arguably the most important works to be written for the piano in recent years, these are natural successors to the piano études by György Ligeti and are already of international prominence. These have been combined with post-Romantic études by Lyapunov, the mercurial timbres of Szymanowski and the jazzy studies of Kapustin, which form an exuberant finale to the programme.

Clare would be very interested in presenting the étude disc in performance for Sounds New and has provided sample programmes below. She is open to suggestions and would be interested in performing new commissions. Clare is an experienced teacher and speaker so could be involved in outreach events, and would be happy to give a pre-concert talk.

"... Most impressive, though, was her natural sense of pacing, allowing the hollowed-out climax of Pour les Arpèges Composées to gather like a wisp of smoke in sunlight before dissipating in a passing breeze."

The Guardian, Purcell Room, Guy Dammann

"... In Ravel's Tombeau de Couperin, the pianist was likewise in full expressive command of her fingers, conveying the swirling shimmer and sweet melancholy of a work that veers between elegance and emotion. Two pieces of Satie and two of Albéniz were exquisitely played."

Herald Scotland, Queen's Hall Edinburgh, Conrad Wilson
