The first programme opens with Bach's imposing Toccata in D minor which is followed by Beethoven's uplifting and optimistic Sonata in E flat major. The second half presents three French composers with the inexpressibly beautiful Nocturnes of Fauré, Debussy's humorous Children's Corner, and Dutilleux's virtuosic Au gré des ondes.

The second programme opens with two sets of Mazurkas by Polish composer Szymanowski and British composer Thomas Adès. Medtner's intense Sonata Romantica precedes the interval. Rachmaninov's variations are based on a well known Baroque dance melody, 'La Folia', also used in works by Corelli, while Shostakovich's three movements from Petrouchka provide an explosive and invigorating close to the programme.

Alternative works

KEN HESKETH
Hände (13', for piano and film)

ED HUGHES
The Nose (11', for piano and film)

These two new works for piano and film were commissioned by Clare and premiered in November 2015 at the Cornerstone Festival, Liverpool. Each uses a black-and-white silent movie as a backdrop and both respond to the surreal and grotesque elements of each film in imaginative and unexpected ways.
